Writing Assignment -- Preparing a Speech

You have got to give a speech to the members of your sewing club convincing them to let your best friend join. You would like your best friend to join because she is talented, enjoys sewing, and makes clothes for her younger siblings. She is also knowledgeable about fabrics and will be a good member for the club. Write a five paragraph speech convincing the members of your sewing club to let your best friend join.

Be sure to start with your topic sentence, then a transition sentence, then write your main ideas. Include a statistic and a personal observation as details. Use the lines below to draft out your speech.
